

Contents

|   |           |
|---|-----------|
| Foreword                             | iv |
| Drugs, Crime and Prisons             | 1  |
| Drugs and Crime                      | 1  |
| Prisoners and Drug Problems                 | 2         |
| Dimensions of the Problem in Prison         | 3         |
| Challenges to Prison Drug Policy            | 4         |
| Victorian Prison Drug Strategy 2002  | 5  |
| Mission                                     | 5         |
| Goals of the Strategy                       | 5         |
| Supply Control Goal                         | 6         |
| Detection and Deterrence Goal               | 6         |
| Treatment Goal                              | 6         |
| Health and Safety Goal                      | 6         |
| Guiding Principles                          | 6         |
| Harm minimisation                           | 6         |
| Evidence-based practice                     | 7         |
| Social justice                              | 7         |
| Effective prisoner management               | 8         |
| Therapeutic jurisprudence                   | 8         |
| System integrity                            | 9         |
| Achieving the Goals                  | 10 |
| Supply Control Goal                  | 10 |
| Performance Objectives                      | 10        |
| Key Strategies and Services                 | 10        |
| Intelligence operations                     | 10        |
| Security and Emergency Services Group       | 10        |
| Drug detector dogs                          | 11        |
| Searching visitors and prisoners            | 11        |
| New Initiatives                             | 12        |
| Increased drug detector dog capacity        | 12        |
| Expanded barrier control and search efforts | 12        |
| Shared intelligence                         | 12        |
| Visitor signage                             | 12        |

|  |           |
|--|-----------|
| Detection and Deterrence Goal                 | 13 |
| Performance Objectives                               | 13        |
| Key Strategies and Services                   | 13 |
| Urine drug testing                                   | 13        |
| Identified Drug User Program                         | 14        |
| Prison searches                                      | 15        |
| New Initiatives                               | 15 |
| Incentive-driven Identified Drug User Program        | 15        |
| Drug-Free Incentive Program                   | 16        |
| IDU Review Process                            | 16        |
| Cannabis and Differential Management Measures | 17        |
| Treatment Goal                                | 18 |
| Performance Objectives                               | 19        |
| Key Strategies and Services                   | 19 |
| Prison health services                               | 19        |
| Psycho-social programs                               | 19        |
| Treatment resources and programs                     | 20        |
| Methadone maintenance program                        | 20        |
| Peer education and self-help support                 | 21        |
| Transitional support                                 | 21        |
| New Initiatives                               | 22 |
| IDU Review process                                   | 22        |
| Targeting of treatment resources                     | 22        |
| Offending behaviour programs                         | 23        |
| Expansion of substitution therapy programs           | 24        |
| Peer education, self-help and family support         | 24        |
| Transitional support                                 | 25        |
| Bridging the Gap Initiatives                  | 25        |
| Community Transitional Units                  | 26        |
| Staff training                                       | 26        |

|  |           |
|--|-----------|
| Health and Safety Goal                    | 27 |
| Performance Objectives                           | 27        |
| Key Strategies and Services               | 28 |
| Occupational health and safety procedures        | 28        |
| Staff training and professional development      | 28        |
| New Initiatives                           | 28 |
| Harm reduction programs                          | 29        |
| Needs-based planning studies                     | 29        |
| Staff training                                   | 30        |
| Occupational health and safety procedures        | 30        |
| Communication strategies                         | 30        |
| Making the Strategy Work                  | 31 |
| Key Strategies and Services               | 31 |
| Case management                                  | 31        |
| New Initiatives                           | 31 |
| Reducing Re-offending Framework                  | 31        |
| Development of a risk and needs assessment tool  | 32        |
| Offender management                              | 32        |
| Prison drug action plans                         | 33        |
| Drug-free accommodation units                    | 33        |
| Monitoring the Strategy                   | 34 |
| Office of the Correctional Services Commissioner | 34        |
| Research and Evaluation Activities               | 35        |
| Conclusion                                | 37 |