

THE SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC IMPACTS OF GAMING: A FRAMEWORK FOR RESEARCH

Project Report

2001

Prepared for

The Victorian Casino and Gaming Authority
Level 5/35 Spring Street
Melbourne Victoria 3001

Prepared by

The Social and Economic Research Centre
The University of Queensland
Brisbane Queensland 4072

THE SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC IMPACTS OF GAMING: A FRAMEWORK FOR RESEARCH

A report for the Victorian Casino and Gaming Authority

Prepared by the Social and Economic Research Centre

The University of Queensland
Brisbane Queensland 4072

The Social and Economic Research Centre (SERC)

The Social and Economic Research Centre has been established within The University of Queensland for the purpose of undertaking applied research with, and providing consultancy services for, private and public sector agencies.

A major strength of the Centre is its capacity to build strong multidisciplinary teams by drawing on expertise from a range of disciplines housed in one of Australia's most successful universities.

Emeritus Professor John Western is the Director of the Centre, and Professor John Mangan of the Economics Department is Executive Director. The Research Director is John Johnston.

Project Team

Professor John Western	The University of Queensland
Professor Paul Boreham	“ “ “ “
John Johnston	“ “ “ “
Tracey Sleigh	“ “ “ “

The Project Team would like to acknowledge the contribution of Alex Cody, Jenny Figueiredo, Suzanah Cassimaty, Kris Natalier, and Warren Keir who contributed to the project.

SERC was engaged by the Victorian Casino and Gaming Authority for this project. Following the establishment of the Gambling Research Panel under Part 9A of the Gaming Machine Control Act 1991 the Authority assigned its right under the Research Contract to the Panel. In accord with this the Report was presented to the Panel.

Contents

	Page no.
Executive summary	i
1. Introduction	1
1.1 Research objectives and associated requirements	1
1.2 Project scope	3
1.3 Report structure	3
2. Background to the project	5
2.1 The Victorian Casino and Gaming Authority Research Charter and Research Scoping Matrix	5
2.2 The Victorian Casino and Gaming Authority 1998-99 Research program	7
2.3 Brief overview of the growth and current magnitude of the Victorian gaming industry	12
3. Methodology and approach	25
3.1 Project methodology and approach	25
3.1.1 Stage 1– Framework development	25
3.1.2 Stage 2– Summary and evaluation of 1998-99 research program findings	27
4. Review of existing literature on the social and related economic impacts of gaming	29
4.1 Introduction	29
4.2 Individual- and family-based research	30
4.2.1 Key conceptual and methodological issues	30
4.2.2 Definition and prevalence of problem gamblers	30
4.2.3 Impacts on specific groups	32
4.2.4 Nature of impacts on individuals and families	34
4.3 Community-based research	39
4.3.1 Key conceptual and methodological issues	39
4.3.2 Nature of community-based impacts	41
4.4 Regional-based impacts	48
4.4.1 Key conceptual and methodological issues	48
4.4.2 Nature of regional impacts	50
4.5 State-based research	55
4.5.1 Key conceptual and methodological issues	55
4.5.2 Nature of State impacts	55

	Page no.
5. Analytical framework of the social impacts of gaming	61
5.1 Critical review of existing models of the social and economic impacts of gambling	61
5.2 Components of the new analytical framework of the social impacts of gaming	64
5.2.1 Levels of analysis	64
5.2.2 Dimensions of impact	66
5.3 Examination of cells within the analytical framework	67
5.3.1 Cell 1: Individuals and families x health and wellbeing	68
5.3.2 Cell 2: Individuals and families x culture	69
5.3.3 Cell 3: Individuals and families x recreation and tourism	70
5.3.4 Cell 4: Individuals and families x employment	70
5.3.5 Cell 5: Individual and families x legal/justice	71
5.3.6 Cell 6: Individuals and families x economic development	72
5.3.7 Cell 7: Individuals and families x financial	72
5.3.8 Cell 8: Communities x health and wellbeing	73
5.3.9 Cell 9: Communities x culture	74
5.3.10 Cell 10: Communities x recreation and tourism	74
5.3.11 Cell 11: Communities x employment and education	75
5.3.12 Cell 12: Communities x legal/justice	75
5.3.13 Cell 13: Communities x economic development	76
5.3.13 Cell 14: Communities x financial	76
5.3.13 Cell 15: Regional x health and wellbeing	76
5.3.13 Cell 16: Regional x culture	76
5.3.14 Cell 17: Regional x recreation and tourism	77
5.3.15 Cell 18: Regional x employment and education	77
5.3.16 Cell 19: Regional x legal/justice	79
5.3.17 Cell 20: Regional x economic development	79
5.3.18 Cell 21: Regional x financial	80
5.3.19 Cell 22: State x health and wellbeing	80
5.3.20 Cell 23: State x culture	81
5.3.21 Cell 24: State x recreation and tourism	82
5.3.22 Cell 25: State x employment and education	82
5.3.23 Cell 26: State x legal/justice	83
5.3.24 Cell 27: State x economic development	83
5.3.25 Cell 28: State x financial	84
5.4 Conclusion	84
6. Summary and evaluation of individual projects	85
6.1 Introduction	85
6.2 Gaming–comparative history and analysis	85
6.3 Sixth and Seventh surveys of community gambling patterns and perceptions	91
6.4 The economic impact of gambling	98
6.5 Hotel and club industry gaming impact study	107

	Page no.
6.6	The impact of the expansion of gaming on the tourism, entertainment and leisure industries	114
6.7	Longitudinal examination of perceptions and their relationship with actual findings	121
6.8	The impact of gaming on specific cultural groups	126
6.9	The impact of gaming and crime statistics	131
6.10	Longitudinal community impact study	134
6.11	Summary and conclusion	148
7.	Summary and evaluation of the Victorian Casino and Gaming Authority's 1998-99 Research Program	150
7.1	Using "positive" and "negative" to describe gambling impacts	150
7.2	Integration of findings from the Victorian Casino and Gaming Authority's 1998-99 Research Program	151
7.3	Research findings x level of analysis	151
	7.3.1 Individual and family	151
	7.3.2 Community	152
	7.3.3 Regional	153
	7.3.4 State	153
7.4	Research findings x dimensions of impact	154
	7.4.1 Health and wellbeing	154
	7.4.2 Cultural	154
	7.4.3 Recreation and tourism	155
	7.4.4 Employment and education	156
	7.4.5 Legal/justice	156
	7.4.6 Economic development	156
	7.4.7 Financial	157
7.5	Summary	158
8.	Conclusion	159
8.1	Comparison with previous gambling impact models	159
8.2	Limitations of previous gambling impact models	159
8.3	Advantages of the analytical framework developed by SERC	160
8.4	Future directions for gambling impact research	161
8.5	Conceptual issues	161
8.6	Methodological problems	163
8.7	A final note	164
	References	165
	Appendix A: Victorian Casino and Gaming Authority – research reports by year of publication	169

	Page No.
Appendix B: Detailed descriptions of projects in the Victorian Casino and Gaming Authority 1998-99 Research Program	172
Appendix C: Attitudes to gambling – time series data 1996-1999	183
Appendix D: Tax rates for the various legal forms of gambling in Victoria	187
Appendix E: Distribution of Electronic Gaming Machines (EGMs) in Victoria 1992-1999 by local government area	189
Appendix F: Discussion paper sent to key Victorian stakeholder groups	198
Appendix G: Discussion paper sent to VCGA 1998-99 research program consultants	208
Appendix H: List of interviewees' affiliations for stakeholder interviews	218
Appendix I: List of consultants who provided feedback on the discussion paper	221

List of tables

2.1	Victorian Casino and Gaming Authority Research Charter – Set of Principles for Operation	6
2.2	The Victorian Casino and Gaming Authority 1998–99 Research Program	9
2.3	Participation and frequency of gambling by Australians	12
2.4a	Gambling Expenditure 1998–99	17
2.4b	Per capita expenditure 1998–99	18
2.5	Victoria- Gambling expenditure	19
2.6	Victoria- Real per capita gambling expenditure	20
2.7	Victoria- Gaming expenditure	21
2.8	Gambling revenue as a proportion of total revenue 1991–2000	22
2.9	Direct state government taxation – gambling industry ($million) 1991–2000	22
2.10	Direct state government taxation (as % breakdown) – Gambling industry ($million) 1991–2000	23
2.11	Distribution of EGMs by state and territory and venue type	24
3.1	Key Components of the Research Process	25
4.1	Gambling taxation derived by government 1991-92 to 1996-97 ($m)	58
5.1	Comprehensive analytical framework of the social (and related economic) impacts of gaming	67
6.1	Analytical framework of the social impacts of gaming projects in the Victorian Casino and gaming Authority 1998-99 research project	149
8.1	Considerations for future gambling impact research	161

List of figures

2.1	VCGA Research Scoping Matrix	7
2.2	Participation rates	13
2.3	Participation by activity	15
5.11	Impacts of Problem Gambling	63